Submitting Assignments: All assignments must be submitted in class or should be left in the instructor's mail box before noon on the day they are due. Late assignments will only be accepted in dire circumstances.

Academic Misconduct: You are encouraged to discuss the readings and your position paper but your work must be your own. If you use words or ideas from another source you must follow an accepted citation convention. If you have any questions, please ask me. If I even suspect that someone is cheating or plagiarizing I am obligated to report him/her to the Committee on Academic Misconduct. This includes material from the internet, from books, journals, or magazines, or from your roommate or your parent. Further information and suggestions for avoiding misconduct may be found on the Committee's website, <http://oaa.osu.edu/coam/home.html> as well as in the Code of Student Conduct, http://studentaffairs.osu.edu/info\_for\_students/csc.asp

Instructors are required to turn over evidence of possible academic misconduct to the University Committee on Academic Misconduct: we are not allowed to decide whether any actually has taken place, nor may we take steps to resolve a situation outside of the standardized university procedure.

Contacting me

- I am always willing to answer questions about material or assignments, so please ask!
- I check and respond to my e-mail frequently.
- Feel free to stop by, even if not during my official office hours. It is always a pleasure to talk to you!

Accommodation of Special Needs:

Any student who requires accommodation for a particular disability should contact me privately (and as soon as possible) to discuss specific needs. I am very willing to help make this class accessible for you. If you have not already done so, please also contact the Office for Disability Services; I will rely on their guidance in order to appropriately accommodate your needs. (The Office for Disability Services is located at 150 Pomerene Hall, 1760 Neil Avenue; <http://www.ods.ohio-state.edu/>; telephone (614) 292-3307; TDD (614) 292-0901)
