II. COURSE OBJECTIVES: By the end of the semester, with regard to the field of Hebrew Bible studies, the student will be able to a) identify core resources, b) interact with past and current methodologies, c) navigate past and current emphases, and d) contribute meaningfully to the scholarly conversation.

III. GRADING:

50% Weekly Assignments

50% Final Project (to be approved by the professor)

IV. Absence from class and class conduct. The student is responsible for all information and materials and class discussion that occurs, even in his or her absence. The absent student must make arrangements with other class members to obtain notes or to be apprised of class developments when absent. Plagiarism is not tolerated, and the student is reminded to read about academic misconduct in the student handbook. If you have a disability, it is your responsibility to inform me in a timely manner.

V. Academic Misconduct

Plagiarism is not tolerated. It is the responsibility of the Committee on Academic Misconduct to investigate or establish procedures for the investigation of all reported cases of student academic misconduct. The term “academic misconduct” includes all forms of student academic misconduct wherever committed; illustrated by, but not limited to, cases of plagiarism and dishonest practices in connection with examinations. Instructors are required to report all instances of alleged academic misconduct to the committee (Faculty Rule 3335-5-487). For additional information, see the Code of Student Conduct (<http://studentlife.osu.edu/csc>).

VI. Disabilities

Students with disabilities that have been certified by the Office for Disability Services will be appropriately accommodated and should inform the instructor as soon as possible of their needs. The Office of Student Life Disability Services is located in 098 Baker Hall, 113 W. 12th Ave; <http://www.ods.ohio-state.edu>; 614-292-330.
