

BELOW THE LINE

THE FEUILLETON & MODERN JEWISH CULTURES

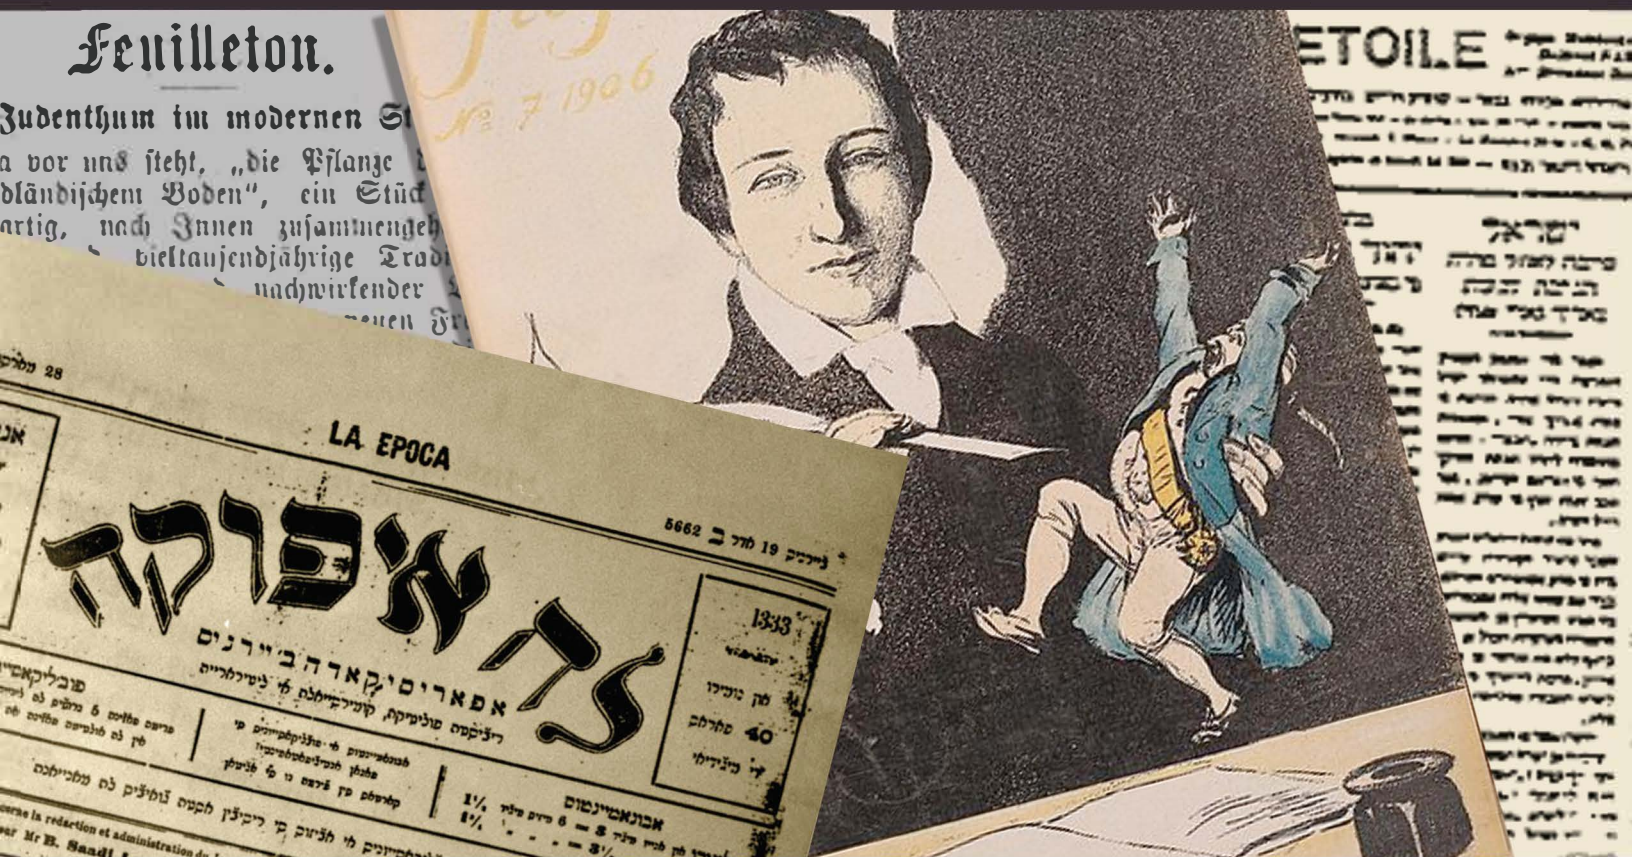

What do Heinrich Heine, Sholem Aleichem, Theodor Herzl, Vladimir Jabotinsky, Isaac Babel, Walter Benjamin, Ilya Ehrenburg, Leah Goldberg and Antoni Słonimski all have in common?

These Jewish writers all wrote feuilletons: entertaining essays, sketches, satires and stories that appeared “below the line” in newspapers. This conference will explore feuilletons in many different languages and their connections to modern Jewish cultures.
